Huis De Colvenier" in the very centre of Antwerp, is a real tastemaker having class and quality as a motto. The restaurant has been located here for 17 years in a triumphant Patrician house in the Sint-Antoniusstraat. A wintergarden, a summerterrace with a retractable roof and a stylish dining-room gives this house a powerful character. But the most exquisite room is certainly the winecellar. This is impressive and has a very special atmosphere. Especially aimed at the aperitif with owner – chef Patrick Van Herck. In his open kitchen, you smell, you see and you taste the flavours of goose liver, shellfish, fresh vegetables, cheese and, depending on your taste, time, budget ... Discover and live "Huis De Colvenier". This will be a personal and surprising experience.
