

Complimentary Limited Membership Form

Employer, who loses membership representation in MPI due to a member employee leaving the company and taking their membership with them, may apply for a trial six-month “limited membership” for a new or existing employee of the company to replace a departing MPI member.

There is no fee for this trial six-month limited membership and is transferable one time within the six-month period.

Within the six-month “limited membership” period, a new supplier is required to find a new planner match in order to continue to a full MPI membership with all privileges and benefits.

Benefits of the six-month limited membership includes: e-mail newsletters and The Meeting Professional Magazine from International, local chapter affiliation and the membership only section of the website. Upon renewing the member will receive full benefits of a member.
