

Margaret Moynihan

Chairwoman

Meeting Professionals International Foundation

Margaret Moynihan is Director of Strategic Events & Projects in the Global Conference Group for Deloitte & Touche, located in Wilton, Connecticut. The Global Conference Group consists of 47 meeting planners, registration specialists and engagement lodging professionals and provides full-service meeting planning from site selection and registration through on-site management and is responsible for over 800 meetings annually, ranging in size from 10 to 3,600 participants held worldwide.

Margaret was chosen as Meeting Professional's International Planner of the Year in 1997; MPI Westfield Chapter Planner of the Year in 1995; MPI Greater New York Planner of the Year in 1989 and was also named by Meeting News as one of 25 Most Influential People in Meeting Planning Industry.

Margaret has spoken at several MPI Conferences, Meeting World, IACC and Special Events programs. She has written articles and been quoted in numerous trade publications. She has been a member of MPI since 1980. During her career, she has served on: MPI International Board of Directors; MPI Foundation Board of Trustees; MPI Westfield Chapter Board of Directors; MPI Greater New York Board of Directors; Starwood Meeting Advisory Board, ACTE Education Steering Committee and the Mohegan Sun Advisory Board. Presently, she is serving as Chairwomen of the MPI Foundation's Global Board of Trustees. Margaret resides in Wilton, Connecticut, with her husband, Dennis.