MPI Middle Pennsylvania Chapter Silent Auction Raises $1,300 For Women's Rehab Program

HERSHEY, PA (December 4, 2019) – Meeting Professionals International (MPI) Middle Pennsylvania Chapter held a Holiday Luncheon and Silent Auction on Dec. 4, 2019, and raised more than $1,300 for New Life For Girls, a women's rehabilitation organization.

More than 130 attendees, including members and non-members, bid on Silent Auction items at the event, held in the Nigerian Room at *Hershey Lodge*SM.

New Life For Girls, helps women who struggle with addiction, eating disorders, and abuse issues to find a new way of living. The program's mission is to liberate women from the bondage of these life-controlling issues, restore self-worth, and equip them to reenter society. New Life For Girls, based in Dover, Pa., has five centers throughout the country and a children's center in Glen Rock, Pa.

In addition to the Silent Auction, attendees heard from Judson Laipply, an inspirational comedian who reminded the group that "Life is Change." In addition to this work as a keynote speaker, emcee, and author, Laipply first earned international notoriety with his viral YouTube video, "The Evolution of Dance."
