

Volunteer of the Year

This award recognizes a MPI member who volunteers and dedicated their time to the Minnesota Chapter. This individual shows promise as a future leader for the industry and through their commitment they spread inspiration, innovation, and energy to lead others.

Criteria

Self-nominations are required to be validated by one (1) letter of recommendation by an individual or organization (the author does not need to be a MPI member). The letter should address the nominee's volunteer achievements.

- Describe nominee's ability to collaborate with industry peers and committee leaders.
- Describe projects and committees the volunteer has serviced or served.
- Describe how the nominee has impacted the MPI Minnesota Chapter.

Eligibility

- Nominee must be a MPI member.
- Nominee must have been a volunteer for at least one year or more.
- Nominee can be a member of the Board or Directors.
- Nominee must be an individual (not organization) member of MPI in good standing.
- Nominee may not be a member of the judging panel.
